

LIVING HISTORY DAYS 2014

A Year-Long Celebration of the History, Traditions & Life of the Ethnic Germans

“A Cultural Exhibit”

“Sommer” by STEFAN JÄGER

Do you see the man standing in the distant fields? His hat upon his head keeps out the hot sun as he toils in those fields, his fields. There is sweat upon his brow and a satisfied smile on his face after a hard and happy day’s work. The wind blows by him in his beautiful homeland. A land he traveled for; a land he and his sons work on everyday. Do you hear his laughter as he looks upon the beautiful face of his wife and daughters as he arrives home?

“A Trachtenfest: An Evening of Ethnic German Pride and Celebration”

“Hatzfeld Kerweitanz” by STEFAN JÄGER

Look upon the happy faces of the people in this town. They stand together to celebrate their friends, their family, their home and their lives together. They dance in beautiful colorful tracht. Music fills the room with dancers and singers. They make speeches, read poems and sing songs. They eat and drink and live good lives together!

“A Taste of Everyday Life”

“Schwäbisches Hauskonzert” by STEFAN JÄGER

They all sit down at the table sharing not only the hearty meal but each other’s company. They stop once before they eat to give thanks to their heavenly father, for giving them this food, this family and this promised land. The food on this table is home grown and raised. It is prepared with care and practice from recipes passed down from generations.
